

THE PEOPLES' COLUMN

The day for the voice of the people with regard to bonding the city and building a water tower is rapidly approaching and will soon be here. How are you going to vote? Why are you going to vote that way? Do you really know the points in the case, pro and con? Will you let some other man's opinion rule your vote? Will you let the idea of temporary saving tear down future welfare? Or will you let a tax be put upon the citizens of Bryan that will not bring just returns? That's both sides of the case. It's for you, the voter of the city of Bryan to make up your mind just what is the best turn in the case and to cast your vote for what is in your opinion the best thing for the city in the long run. If you are not informed then it is your duty as a citizen of the city to secure the information and to vote according to the dictates of your best judgment and your conscience.

First Grade to Be Begun for Under-Age Ones

Since there seem to be many school patrons in Bryan who have children between the ages of six and seven years who desire to place their children in school, the school board has made a decision to open a new first grade class if as many as 30 pupils can be enrolled for the work, the tuition for them to be $2.50 or $3 per month, depending on the number taking the work. The organization of the new first grade would not affect those already enrolled in either the east or west side building, but the new first would enroll under-age pupils from any section of the city, for this one term. No pupils will be transferred from where they are in attendance to make the necessary number of 30.

LISTS OF TEXTS DISPLACED BY STATE TEXAS

By agreement with the contracting publishers, all of the displaced books which are out of adoption have been donated to the state, according to information given out by L. S. Thrift, Manager Text Book Division, State Department of Education, Austin. The letter containing this information follows: Since the basal contracts provide for the exclusive use of the books covered, no longer can the displaced basal texts be used in the schools, but the supplementary readers may be continued in use.

County Superintendents may, therefore, give to the children attending the public schools the following basal texts, including those that are dropped from the state list and those that are displaced by the new adoptions that are on hand, provided a sufficient number be retained of each text to be used as reference books.

The following Elementary and Grammar School Texts have been displaced: "Playmates Primer," "Child's World," Reader, Book 4 and 5; "First Book of Health," "The Human Body and Its Enemies"; Oral and Written English for grades from third to seventh, inclusive; "Practical Drawing," books 1 through 8. High School Texts dropped: "Elements of Algebra," Hopkins and Underwood; "Oral English and Public Speaking," Shurtz; "Chemistry Laboratory Manual," Mann and Twiss.

County superintendents are instructed to retain and continue in use all supplementary readers that have been dropped or displaced, now on hand until the books are worn out, thus reducing the orders for new supplementary readers and conserving the school fund.

Gov. Ferguson Will Probably Be A Candidate

WICHITA FALLS, Sept. 18.—What is accepted here as but a prelude to formal announcement by James E. Ferguson of his wife's candidacy for re-election as governor of Texas, came in two letters which were made public by their recipients, who asked that their names be not used.

The first bore the signature of Guy Holcomb, former resident of Wichita Falls, and read: "Dear sir:—The enclosed letter of Governor Ferguson is self explanatory, and I will appreciate it if you will assist me in this matter. I desire to secure a list of all the voting boxes in your county with the number of poll taxes for each box; and, also, the name and postoffice address of at least one good Ferguson friend for each 25 votes in each voting box, who are generally active in public matters and well informed on public issues. Governor Ferguson and I will be under many obligations to you if you can get this information to me at an early date. Please advise me if you can do this for us. The first time you are in Austin I will be glad to have you call at The Forum office at 117 West Tenth street, near the governor's mansion. I suggest that this matter be kept quiet for the present, at least. Yours truly, Guy Holcomb."

An accompanying letter bearing the name, James E. Ferguson, read: "Dear friend, Mr. Guy Holcomb, our manager, is compiling information that I think will be valuable to our cause, and I suggested that he write you. I will deeply appreciate it, if you will assist him in getting the line-up of your county. Thanking you in advance and with many thanks for your continued loyalty, I am your friend, James E. Ferguson."

Berry Holton will bring to College on Friday an array of material that any coach in the Southwest Conference would be proud of. Trinity University is a member of the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association and can play first year men, therefore a high school star can play on the varsity eleven during his freshman year. Berry Holton, coach of the Tigers, is a Notre Dame star and will doubtless use a style of play used by the famous Rockne. Advice from Waco is that the Tigers are in excellent condition and are coming to College Station Friday ready for the Aggie team. Both Bible and Rothgeb are

STUDENTS TELL ABOUT WORKING WAY THRU A. M.

A student loan fund program featured the regular Wednesday noon luncheon meeting of the Bryan Rotary Club at the Green Parrot Tea Room. After introduction of visiting Rotarians and others, the meeting was turned over to Colonel Ike Ashburn, Executive Secretary of the Former Students' Association of the A. and M. College, who, after a short prelude, stated that he would let some of the boys themselves tell their stories to indicate how some $800 boys at A. and M. College are endeavoring to work their way through the institution.

Arthur Bayless was the first one to tell the story of his trials and hardships to secure an education. He hails from Hillsboro and said that his father put him through high school but could not aid him further financially and told him that he was free to do as he wished if he could find a way to make his own way through college. The story of how he accomplished that has been told so many times that is familiar to Bryan people and to most people over Texas. W. S. Barron stated that the story had been used before committees in the State Legislature to secure greater appropriations for the A. and M. College.

A. C. Robinson of Bell county said that his father died in 1918 just as he was ready to enter high school. Through assistance of his grandfather he finished high school which only created in him a desire to go to College. But here was a brother and sister to go to school, too, and the mother was unable to give assistance. He took a position on the Santa Fe railroad and saved some money to begin his work at College. After a short time at school he took down with dengue fever and spent some time in the hospital. He told of how P. L. Downs of Temple, a member of the A. and M. Board of Directors, had helped him as had others, and now he was engaged (Continued on Page 4)

Jim Edge Home From A Trip To Eastern Texas

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Edge returned Saturday from Palestine where they motored on Thursday afternoon for a visit with their brothers, W. B. and J. B. Flanagan. While there Mr. Edge went through the fine cotton field of J. W. McFarland, who won the Dallas News five-acre cotton contest last year with 10 bales and 167 pounds and who bids fair to win the prize again this year as his crop is estimated to make around 15 or 16 bales off the five acres. Mr. Edge says that the field is situated in a basin or low land and seems to be fed by natural springs, making it irrigation on a natural basis. The I-G. N. grade forms a bank on one side of the field. Mr. Edge says he saw a field of corn that gave evidence of making 60-bushels to the acre, in the same plot with the prize cotton tract. This is more corn than many people in this section will make on their whole farm.

BRYAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO GIVE NEARLY SIX HUNDRED TO BRYAN-COLLEGE TRACTION CO.

At the opening of the regular Tuesday morning session of the Board of Directors of the Bryan and Brazos County Chamber of Commerce, Secretary Eberstadt read a letter giving notification that the synod of the Texas Presbyterian church at a recent meeting at Kerrville had voted to move the Presbyterian College from Milford to some other Texas city and that the definite location would be settled in August, 1926, at which time committees will investigate proposals from cities who want the school. A special committee was appointed on this matter as follows: McInnis, Higgs, Ashburn, Miller and President Jno. M. Lawrence.

The secretary also read a letter from a Mart banker asking that the Bryan Chamber of Commerce join them in requesting a night train service on the I-G. N. The secretary was instructed to reply to the letter stating that Bryan understood that when the road bed was worked up to required standard and when it was deemed that night service trains would be profitable, they would be installed as a part of the I-G. N. service.

Tyler Haswell, chairman of the Finance committee, reported that Dr. E. P. Humbert had called on him with reference to the Brazos County Health Nurse and this work for 1926, and that there was a shortage of $200 needed to carry on the work in the county, asking the Chamber to donate that sum. A motion carried that the Chamber give that amount if the other organizations would raise the required sum of $1,000.

Mrs. Rountree, chairman of the entertainment committee, reported that, after a conference with President T. O. Walton, the banquet in his honor would be given by the Bryan Chamber on Tuesday night, September 29, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, the place to be determined later. Tickets for same will be placed in the hands of Secretary Eberstadt for sale and every director and business man will be expected to attend and to bring his wife.

F. L. Henderson, chairman of the City Development committee, addressed the board on the condition of the Bryan-College Traction Company and stated that on account of dull business during the summer that the line was in debt to the amount of $595, and that since this institution was a Chamber of Commerce project, he felt that the body should come to the aid of the company, and recommended that the money be donated to liquidate the indebtedness. On motion it was decided to give the money, providing the financial committee would endorse the matter. A. M. Waldrop elaborated on the subject and Eugene Edge, president of the Bryan-College Traction Company thanked the board for the donation and expressed his appreciation of their confidence and approval.

A. M. Waldrop, chairman of the Trade Extension committee, stated that he had read in a Waco paper of Sunday's issue that the traffic and transportation department of the Waco Chamber of Commerce were routing tourists to Houston by way of Cameron, Caldwell and Brenham, stating that this was the best route to Houston. Secretary Eberstadt read a letter from W. N. Minor, secretary of the Waco Chamber in which he stated that the traffic was being routed thru Bryan and enclosed copy of bulletin No. 108, for July to prove his statement. A motion carried that the secretary write a letter to the Waco secretary taking up this matter at once.

The board voted to thank the officials of the Bryan-College Traction Company for the tendering of a special car on the occasion of the opening of the A. and M. College.

Director Ashburn reported that the A. and M. College was well started and was enjoying the largest enrollment in its history with 1968 students enrolled at the close of last week, which is larger than last year when girls and federal students were counted in the total.

Those present today were: Col. Ike Ashburn, Wilson Bradley, J. E. Covey, W. H. Cole, Eugene Edge, E. J. Fountain, Judge H. O. Ferguson, Tyler Haswell, J. Webb Howell, F. L. Henderson, J. M. ### GOING TOO FAR

There is nothing in this world but that it can be carried to excess—even religion—though few do it, or even approach it. There is a form of "teasing" that is "torment" to the victim. There are certain people who cannot stand to be made the "butt" of a joke and become unnerved and a few even temporarily insane when the joke is carried too far.

A sample of this is evidenced by the triple tragedy at Taylor and in which two more lives—those of innocent by-standers—one an innocent babe—still hang in the balance.

Good, honest, clean fun is to be commended. It is worth while to laugh and to enjoy life. But to derive pleasure at the expense of the other, while the other is in torment, is not just—is not fair—and should be an offense against the law of the land as well as against the law of justice.

The "fun" that the town boys of Taylor had at the expense of two foreigners caused them to pay dearly—one with his life.
What profit can there be in that form of so-called "fun"?

"Liberty" is "doing what you please so long as you do not infringe on the rights of others." The tormenting of others for personal satisfaction is not "liberty" but rather is "taking a liberty that is unwarranted."

THINK IT OVER

Isn't it strange that the average person you meet will complain about the taxes he has to pay for roads, schools, etc. Yet last year we expended the enormous amount given below for non-essentials without any complaint. This report is made by the U. S. Treasury Department:

Tobacco	$1,847,000,000
Beverages	820,000,000
Theatres and movies	934,000,000
Candy	689,000,000
Jewelry	453,000,000
Firearms	67,000,000
Musical instruments	440,000,000
Sporting goods	431,000,000
Cosmetics, perfumes	261,000,000
Chewing gum	87,000,000
Toilet Soaps (1/2 since some are essen- tials)	76,000,000
Furs (1/2 since some are essentials)	176,000,000
Radio	150,000,000
American tourists at home	1,000,000,000
American tourists abroad	600,000,000
Total	$8,081,000,000

Half of this allowance on good roads would make it possible for us to drive from one county seat to the county seat of any other county on well paved roads. Think it over.

Boy Prodigy of Honey Grove Is On Visit Bryan

Edwin Donaldson, aged eight years, youthful prodigy of the sweet, little, North Texas town of Honey Grove, from which hails Puny Wilson and others of famous name, was a visitor in Bryan this week-end, arriving on the early morning train Friday morning and expected to remain over until Sunday. He was accompanied here by his grandmother, Mrs. J.
H. Donaldson.

Since arriving in Bry. the boy has been kept busy entertaining as a pianist, reader and dancer. He gave a varied program at the east side school on Friday and all the children were delighted with his performance. On last evening he entertained on the piano at the college night at A. and M. College and entranced his audience which demanded encore after encore, bringing credit to himself and to Puny who was responsible for the lad's coming to Bryan and College Station.

Maj. McInnis Attends for 48th Time At A. & M.

Bryan is proud that it is the home of Major L. L. McInnis, a teacher in the first faculty of the A. and M. College of Texas in 1876 and who has attended every opening of the school since then, which covers 48 annual openings.
Major McInnis arrived on the campus a month too late to attend the first opening but he never fails to be on hand each fall and has never missed a single time since the first opening.

WOMAN KILLED INSTANTLY-- MAN DIED LATER

(From Saturday's Daily)

Two people were killed this afternoon when an automobile in which they were riding was struck by the fast through Southern Pacific Sunbeam Special passenger train at the King's Trail-S. P. crossing, two miles south of College, shortly before 2 o'clock this afternoon. The woman was killed instantly and the man died just a few minutes later, being so badly injured that he could not give any information in regard to anything in connection with the tragedy. The McCulloch-Gordon automobile was summoned hurriedly to the scene and brought the bodies in to the Bryan undertaking parlors. The bodies are thought to be Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Williams of Mechanics Avenue, Bryan. They were supposed to have left this afternoon for Brenham to visit their sons who are in that city. The pilot of the engine was badly damaged by the accident and the train had to be stopped while hurried repairs were made.

B. Bounds officiated at the fun-

Joe Fezzino And Miss Salvaggio Wed On Saturday

Miss Josephine Salvaggio, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Salvaggio, of Smetana community, and Joe Fezzino, son of Mrs. Katie Fezzino, who lives on Milton Sims' plantation at Steele's Store, were married at 9 o'clock Saturday morning, September 19th, at St.
Anthony's church in Bryan, Rev.
Basil Bravi officiating. The church was well filled with friends and relatives of the families.

In the party with the groom were: Charley Salvaggio, brother of the bride; Tony Fezzino, brother of the groom; Sam Batcallia, John Falco, T. J. Abate and Dominico Congemi; while attending the bride were Bonnie Bell Piccolo, Mary Salvaggio, sister of the bride; Mary Ventura, Angelina Abate, Rosalie Fezzino, cousin of the groom; and Palma Varisco.
The six flower girls were: Lena Salvaggio, sister of the bride; Kate Fezzino and Dora Fezzino, sisters of the groom; and Callie Fezzino, cousin of the groom; Phena Pala-sano and Nina Varisco. The ring-bearer was T. J. Venatula and the matron of honor Mrs. P. S.
Venatula. It was a "rainbow" wedding in that the attendants were dressed in costumes of the colors of the rainbow. The bride wore a white silk satin, embroidered and pearl-beaded. She wore a necklace of pearls, and white kid slippers. She also wore a corsage bouquet of white roses and carnations and all the attendants wore smaller bouquets of the same kind. Sisters from Villa Maria sang the "High Mass" and the wedding march was to the strains of Mendelssohn's composition.

Following the wedding a picture was taken of the wedding group at Sokolik's Studio, after which the entire party repaired to the home of the bride's parents, at Smetana, where the wedding festivities began and continued until Sunday afternoon about 2 o'clock, the time being spent in the consumption of the bountiful viands provided for the celebration of the marriage and in dancing to music furnished by J. F. Regnum and Martin Merka of Smetana. Some 200 or 300 people were present at the festivity at some time during Saturday or Sunday.

JUDGE W. C. DAVIS DELIVERS A LONG AND IMPRESSIVE CHARGE

Proximity of Schools with Upward of Three Thousand Students From All Parts of Country Prompts District Judge To Painstaking Charge in Effort To Rid County of Vice.

(From Monday's Daily)

The September session of District Court in Brazos county opened this morning at the court house in Bryan with District Judge W. C. Davis on the bench and Court Stenographer Z. R. McDonald of Franklin at his desk.
The grand jury was selected and the judge delivered one of the longest and most impressive charges ever heard in the Bryan court room. He was particularly interested, it seemed, in the desire to see that vice and crime be suppressed in this county due to the fact that there are in this section at this time for the opening of school, some 3,000 students from all parts of Texas and some from other states, whose parents expect them to be protected from these things. Following a lengthy preamble or preface in which he outlined the duties of a grand jury, the necessity for law and its definition, and the respect for law that should rule in the minds and hearts of the people, he made the direct charge and closed with the appointment of Henry Kurten as foreman of the grand jury.

TAKING OF LIFE.

After the preface, Judge Davis launched into his formal charge which was as follows:

"Gentlemen, I do not know of any crime wave within the confines of our county, and what I shall say to you in regard thereto shall be only in general terms.

"The law is mandatory that I charge you with respect to certain alleged violations of the statutes.

"The unlawful taking of human life has been an athemized and condemned in all civilized communities throughout the history of the world. Every person is entitled to live until, under the law, he forfeits that right. A man has the right, under the law, to the full protection of his liberty and his property, and these guarantees are sacred to him and should not be molested except under the due process of the law of the land.
The murderer, the rapist, the thief, the burglar, the incendiary and the violators of any of the most serious offense under the law are menaces to the safety and security of our lives, home and property. If there be such violations in this county of course you will diligently investigate same.

Special Charges

"I am specially required to charge you relative to certain violations. The railroad companies are under the law, forbidden to grant special rates or rebates to anyone, and to do so is a violation of the law.

"The adulteration of foods, both liquid and solid, by any one has come under the ban of the law.

"The right of the ballot is guaranteed to every man whether it be an election of officers or for any other purpose, and all elections should be honestly and fairly conducted to the end that the will of a free people might be expressed, and any effort to defeat this purpose is condemned and penalized by the law. These matters you will investigate.

"There is one law written in the organic law of the United States and also in the fundamental law of Texas and enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas known as the prohibition law. The passage of this law was a result of many years of bitter conflict, and a sovereign people by a solemn referendum and free expression at the ballot box in no unmistakable terms declared that the liquor traffic was an out-law. The great majority of the people of this country and of our state, law abiding and liberty loving, have accepted this verdict and are honestly endeavoring to enforce the laws written upon our statute books pertaining thereto. In our own county I am advised that a number of complaints relative to the violation of this law has been filed and examining trials held.

Because of Schools.

"Within our county at the various institutions of learning there are at present between two thousand and twenty-five hundred young men who come from other sections of the state and other states for the purpose of acquiring an education, some two thousand being registered at the A. and M. College of Texas and practically two hundred at Allen Academy; in addition to which our public school is crowded with boys of our own neighbors and firesides. While I call particular attention to these institutions where young men are in attendance, I also wish to emphasize the fact that at the public school and convent where young ladies and girls are in attendance also need the full protection of the laws. These boys are sent to us with the understanding (impliedly at least) that they will have a wholesome atmosphere and surroundings in which to pursue their studies.
Any man or set of men who will sell intoxicating liquor to one of these boys, or would aid one of them in securing intoxicating liquor is a menace to society and an undesirable citizen, worse than the boishevik or red handed anarchist. Thus as a people, as grand and petit jurors and as a court we hereby guarantee to the parents of all these boys who come from other sections and the parents of our own boys that we will use every legitimate and honest effort in the apprehending of any who seeks to ply his unlawful trade and traffic, and to pledge to the authorities of these institutions our

Opening Program Given At Negro School In Bryan

There was not standing room in the auditorium of the colored school Monday morning at 10 o'clock when the formal opening took place. Quite a number of parents responded to the invitation to be present and all seemed to be in accord with everything that was said.

In his talk to the children, Principal E. A. Kemp admonished them to be loyal, obedient, cheerful, responsive, courteous, kind and studious during the school year. In discussing with the parents the development of the child he dwelt briefly upon what he termed the balanced triangle having for its side: heredity, environment and training. He brought out the fact that no matter how efficient the teacher might be he could not go back of heredity.

Over Three Hundred.
Rev. Rhodes of Birmingham, Alabama, was also present as a visitor and in an earnest address he urged the parents to enter wholeheartedly in co-operation with the teacher. He placed great emphasis upon the fact that the entire future of the child was built up around the home training as a foundation.

At the close of the program the registration showed that 331 pupils were present, distributed as follows:

Grade	Boys	Girls	Total
1	33	40	73
2	35	27	62
3	25	26	51
4	14	11	25
5	23	23	46
6	10	15	25
7	6	17	23
8	4	4	8
9	0	5	5
10	1	5	6
11	4	3	7
Total	155	176	331

Classification has gone steadily forward and all will be down to hard work by next week.

List of Grand Jurors Is Named For This Term

The following is a list of the men selected to serve as grand jurors to investigate conditions in Brazos county and to return bills of indictment where they deem the evidence sufficient to secure a conviction, with Henry Kurten serving as foreman: Joe Locke, E.
M. Francis, Albert Payne, Fletcher Pool, Henry Kurten, Evander Hen-sawling, Walter Holmes, Albert Goodman, T. C. Wade, Jim Jones, Hubert James, Douglas Peters.
The grand jury retired to its rooms shortly after 10 o'clock and immediately began to hear witnesses.

If you have something to sell or trade, an Eagle want ad will do it quickly.

full co-operation to the end that this county shall be as free from vice of all kinds as it is possible for us to make it. You will therefore investigate the alleged violations of what is known as the liquor laws, and where the testimony is sufficient to warrant an indictment return same into court.

"Gambling is prohibited by law.
It is the pitfall of many boys and men. The professional gambler is an outlaw and should and ought to be suppressed. Investigate these matters and return bills where evidence is sufficient to the end that the end of vice may be driven from our confines.

"The perpetuity of our free institutions, the safety of our lives, liberty and property depends in the last analysis upon the eternal vigilance of the individual citizen and it is to be hoped and I believe it to be a fact that with the great majority of our people that over and above politics and over and above factional strife that the first, highest and noblest obligation of a man is to his country.
With these visions we need have no fear for the safety of our county. 'Where there is no vision the people perish, but he that keep-eth the law obeys, happy is he,'"

Rev. Thompson Is Re-Elected For Sixth Year

The annual business meeting of the Free Baptist church was held on Wednesday evening and among other business transacted, Rev. C.
B. Thompson was re-named pastor for the ensuing year, which will make his sixth year as the popular pastor of this fast-growing denomination in Bryan. Reports rendered show that the church has been active in the community and is in generally good condition throughout.

MECHANICAL FOREMAN FORD DEALERS RETURNS FROM SERVICE SCHOOL

The citizens of Bryan are assured of the same excellence of service work on the improved Ford cars they purchase as Ford owners have always enjoyed. The Ford car is familiar to thousands upon thousands of mechanics thruout the country and the ease of making repairs and the fact that Ford dealers' service stations are located conveniently throughout the land, has done much to popularize this car," declared Mr. Fender of Chambers-Wilson Motor Co. on his return from the Houston branch of the Ford Motor Co.

The Ford Motor Company is looking after the training of men on the improved type car, so that there will be no interruption in the servicing of the improved type, merely because certain changes have been made. So it was that the company called upon the Chambers-Wilson Motor Company to send their shop foreman to the Houston branch of the company for a course of training in the assembly, construction and repairing of the improved type cars.

"Not one thing was overlooked by the Ford Motor Company stated Mr. Fender "in making our training complete, comprehensive and practical. In company with a group of other shop foremen and service managers of the dealers throughout the State, I worked in every department of the huge manufacturing establishment, where over 650 men are working night and day in an effort to produce sufficient cars to meet the unusual demand which the improved type has created."

"The chassis assembly was particularly interesting, since some of the most important changes in the improved cars are on the chassis proper," continued Mr. Fender.
"Noteworthy in this department were the lowering of the frame of the car without altering the road clearance, the addition of large strong brakes on the rear wheels, much larger than formerly, and increasing the size of the transmission brakes so that the cars now have 145 square inches of braking surface. The different designed fenders, running boards and mud guards, all of much heavier material than ever used before, of course, attracted me as also did the heightened radiator."

"In the body assembling department, particularly significant was the trim design of the streamline touring body with four doors and an all-steel product from one end to the other. The use of all-steel bodies has increased the factor of safety tremendously, and is an outstanding improvement. The upholstering and assembly of the top are also very interesting operations. What customers will particularly enjoy is the increased length of body and the added width and lowered seat which gives more room and riding comfort to the user."

"The last work we did was to disassemble the cars so that our service work in our shops on the improved types will be most thoroughly understood and capably performed," he concluded.

Friends of Mr. Fender will be interested in knowing that he passed his course with flying colors.

For All The Family

"We use Black-Draught in our family of six children and find it a good liver and bowel regulator," says Mrs.
C. E. Nutt, of Mineral Springs, Ark. "I have taken it myself in the last two or three years for indigestion. I would feel dizzy, have gas and sour stomach, also feel a thickness in my chest. I'd take a good dose of

he has the tired, heavy feel-

CORTEMEGLIA MAY BE CENTER FOR S. M. U. ATTACK

Dallas reports state that the S.
M. U. attack will be built around Christopher Cortemeglia, the powerful Wop, this year, but this may merely be a smoke screen formed to hide the prowess of some star unknown at present. Cortemeglia got in a few games last year, but did not show real form against any team save Texas University. He ran through the tired Texas line toward the close of the game. He is a wonder once he gets started, but is a slow starter.

The S. M. U. team is the real dark horse of the conference.—

JINX TUCKER NAMES BERRY QUARTERBACK FOR AGGIES

Bob Berry, peppery Texas Aggie quarterback promises to win the berth again this year. Berry is as speedy as a deer, a great broken field runner, and an ideal defensive safety man. Offensively, however, in the past he was prone to fumble punts. If he can catch the high spirals this year, he will be back at the safety position.
If not, he may be replaced there for Bible has several youngsters who can catch the high kicks consistently. None, however, can bring the oval back as Berry can.

Miss Vivian Howell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Howell of this city, who has been in Bryan for a brief vacation visit to her parents, has returned to New York City to reenter Columbia University, where she is doing special work on her degree. Miss Howell and her sister, Miss Elizabeth Howell, who has been with her in Columbia, have each made excellent records as students and have received the highest praise and honors for their student work. Miss Vivian Howell, expects to finish her college work this year. Miss Elizabeth Howell will teach in one of the private schools on the Hudson for the coming term, and then reenter Columbia next year. Bryan friends are proud of the record for scholarship and splendid work these two talented girls are making and look forward to even greater success for each of them as their efforts are crowned from time to time with deserved success.

Fine Program Is Presented At Tabor Meeting

Due to a misunderstanding in dates and conflicting entertainments there was only a small crowd of 30 or 40 people present last night at the Tabor Welfare Club meeting, about half of the total being visitors from Bryan. The crowd gathered at the schoolhouse at eight o'clock and then, because the lights from the Delco plant had been disconnected on account of the construction work on the new community auditorium, it was decided that the party would adjourn to the Cottonwood Baptist Church where the Delco lights would be available.

Professor W. G. Colson presided over the meeting in the absence of President Walter Armstrong and a short business session preceded the program when plans were discussed for winning the attendance prize at the Howell Lumber Company Fair and Charley Locke and Miss Mary Locke gave short talks on elaborating the plans. It was decided that committees would work for attendance in different sections of the community and that extra accommodations would be provided for all those who did not have means of transportation, and that three or four trucks would carry the school children from Tabor and Alexander, who would report at the respective schools on Saturday morning as if for a regular school session. Most of the people were requested to gather at Crenshaw's Garage and Blacksmith Shop about 8 o'clock and the majority would come to the fair in a body, but that those unable to meet at this hour, might come in at any time during the day.

Then the meeting was turned over to the Lions Club of Bryan, Henry Locke, leading, and a fine program was given consisting of quartette numbers by: Henry Locke, W. E. Neely, Pat Newton led by J. L. Reese, the doors of the church were opened and Lock McNeely and Melvin McNeely came forward for baptism and Mrs. J. M. Dunn on the promise of a letter. The conference heard a report from the site and building committee, which was that the church appoint a committee for the purpose of raising funds to purchase the M. F. Dansby 2 1/2 lots, including residence, at the corner of College Avenue and 27th Street. The committee appointed for this purpose was the board of deacons and the members who were recommended as deacons. The pastor and pulpit committee reported that it had been unable to find some one to conduct the service for Sunday up to this time. After adjournment of the conference the membership went to the First Baptist church to witness the baptism of the new members, to-wit: J. M. Dunn, Robert John Person, Locke McNeely and Melvin McNeely.

After prayer service last night the membership of the newly organized Baptist church went into conference and among the business transacted, was that the deacons were authorized to solicit funds for the purchase of the M. F. Dansby property near the court house as a building site for their new church. This property is well adapted to the use for which it is intended as there is plenty of space for a church building and the present home of Mr. Dansby is new and well suited for a pastor's home. Voluntary contributions to this fund may be made to Mills P. Walker, church clerk, at the Lawrence Grocery Company, or to J. M. Dunn, treasurer at the Cole Hardware Company.

A meeting of the Sunday school officers will be held at the Court House tonight for the purpose of completing the selection of the Sunday school officers and teachers. Announcements for the Sunday service will be made later.

Viola Harris, a colored woman, living on the Shellburn plantation four miles southwest of Bryan, came into Bryan this morning at an early hour, bringing with her in her wagon, her three-year-old child for medical treatment. The child was in a serious condition, and before the doctors had time to give to it the proper medicines and attention, the child died, while in its mother's arms as she sat in the wagon at the back door of the Smith Drug Company. It was a sad sight, for the grief of the mother heart is the same, regardless of color or station in life.

McInnis Reminiscent.

Mr. Walton urged the students to recognize that their family who sent them here, the state which supplied the facilities for their training and the faculty and officers who were here to serve them were expecting them to take every advantage of their opportunities to improve themselves for citizenship and discipline themselves to do the right. And finally he cautioned them to maintain the "fine traditions of A. and M.," the spirit of brotherly love, the spirit of all for one and one for all.

Major L. L. McInnis, vice president of the First National Bank of Bryan and a member of the A. and M. faculty in 1886, was introduced by President Walton to speak for the group of Bryan citizens who sat on the rostrum as representatives of Bryan citizens in the opening exercises.

In a reminiscent mood, Mr. McInnis related the establishment of A. and M. to teach the science of agriculture and mechanics as a major event in state and national existence for Texans, and expressed the hope that while the College continued to educate that it would also profit by its work and be educated through its own processes to better serve the purposes for which it was created.

Dean Charles Puryear, introduced to the assembled group the three new department heads coming into the faculty this year. They are Dr. S. R. Gammon, history department; Dr. J. H. Hance, geology department; and E. W. Steele, municipal and sanitary engineering department.

Recommending a hearty affiliation with the religious program of the community President Walton introduced the denominational pastors in the audience and invited their announcements of services.

He called on Colonel F. H. Turner, commandant, with the statement that the College was most fortunate in having his service in that position and introduced him to the students.

Laughter greeted President Walton's personal introduction to the new men as a "Fish" of their own slimy kind and responded cheerfully to his invitation for them to come and be friendly with him.

(Special to the Eagle)

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. 18.—Enthusiastically and forcefully expressing himself in support of every department of the A. and M. College as now constituted, President T. O. Walton was given hearty acceptance by the 1,900 young men constituting the largest student body ever enrolled for an opening session of the College in the opening exercises of the fiftieth annual session this morning. Declaring for a program of continued advancement and expansion of the College to better meet the needs of Texas boys, Mr. Walton placed himself emphatically in support of a plan for an advanced scholarship, for athletics, for military training and for maintaining intact the fine traditions of the institution. He commended the work of Dr. W. B. Bizzell, his predecessor in office, stating that "no group of college men ever had a man for president who was a more zealous and earnest friend to them than Dr. Bizzell was to A. and M. men." This was received with enthusiastic approbation from the student body and faculty. The speaker then stated his intention of carrying forward the program that was now underway and his ambition "to make it more effective and efficient and give it great influence in the state and nation."

Seriously ill from that date, the patient suffered long with little hope held out for her recovery, by attending physicians and nurses who labored so faithfully and tenderly to bring her back to strength and health. Several weeks ago, Mrs. Dowling was brought to Bryan to the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Dowling, where she passed away at the time above stated.

The funeral was held this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Dowling on College Avenue, and was conducted by Rev. R. L. Brown of College, interment following at the old Bethel cemetery near Harvey. McCulloch-Gordon company in charge of all funeral arrangements.

Traffic is again coming across Jones Bridge, it is said, following the closing of it by the Commissioners Court, to make repairs from damage done by the recent rise in the Brazos river. The rise, which reached the 15 foot stage, brought down much drift and much of it lodged against the bridge piers and the heavy weight pushed them out of line.

CELEBRATION OF DESTROYMENT LAST NOTE INDEBTEDNESS ON BRYAN FREE BAPTIST CHURCH

At a special meeting last night at the Free Baptist church in Bryan, a program appropriate to the occasion was rendered, there were some fine talks made and the whole closed with the burning of the final note that represented the last incumbrance on the church house of this denomination. The meeting opened at 7:30 with a song, followed by opening prayer by Rev. C. B. Thompson, after which talks were made by Dr. Jno. A. Held, Mrs. Lee J. Rountree, and Rev. H. H. McCain. Dr. Held talked on "The Churches Contribution to Town and Community". The house was fairly well filled with an appreciative audience and the interior was decorated beautifully with pink gladioli, roses, Queen's wreath and ferns basketed in white red baskets. The audience departed with the pleasure of a most interesting evening and with the memory of a meeting that was both pleasant and profitable.

Three Speakers.

Dr. Held the opening speaker, talked on the subject of: "The Church's Contribution to the Spiritual Life of the Town and Community". It was a general discussion of the subject and covered the various phases in a splendid manner. Mrs. Lee J. Rountree spoke on "Woman's Part in This Work" and the talk, which was a splendid one, centered around the theme: "I do not like to think of men and women, aged and young, individually but that all are here, each one a part of the Kingdom and working together as a unit; and that if the church is to be at its best, each one, individually and collectively, must take his or her part of the responsibility."

Rev. McCain talked at some length on the "Future Possibilities of the Church" in which he gave a very encouraging and inspirational talk and showed the wonderful possibilities of accomplishment in the future if the people would consecrate their lives to that end. He then developed the subject in a concrete and practical manner.

No Church at First.

Rev. C. B. Thompson, in a few words explained that since he was not the pastor here at the time that the church debt was incurred thru the construction of the new brick building in 1917, he thought it would be quite appropriate for Rev. J. J. Tatum, who was active in the work of the Free Baptist church then, to perform the operation attached to the destroying of the last note of indebtedness. As the last tongue of flame destroyed the last vestige of the evidence of incumbrance, the audience stood and sang "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow" and were dismissed with the benediction pronounced by Rev. Thompson.

The Free Baptist church was organized in 1894 with the following eight as charter members: Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Edge, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Searcy and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Edge. The church was first organized in the Christian church and the members worshipped there for the first year, after which they moved into the old Masonic building and conducted services there for another year until the Free Baptist church house was built on 27th and Sterling, the present site of the church. This building was used until 1917, when it was torn down to be replaced with a fine, modern, more commodious building of brick and tile.

Rev. Tatum in 1906.

The following pastors have served since the organization of the church: Rev. A. N. Stewart in 1894 was the first pastor. He was succeeded in 1904 by Rev. S. L. Morris. Rev. J. J. Tatum came to Bryan as pastor in 1906 and has served at intervals since that time. T. C. Ferguson and T. A. Searcy were both here along about 1908 and Miss Lizzie Lawless and Rev. W. J. Woods served following them. Rev. Tatum served the church again as pastor and was followed by Rev. C. C. Wheeler in 1913 and Rev. Fred Comber in 1917. Rev. Comber's death recalled Rev. Wheeler to the pastorate and he was killed in a railroad accident. Rev. Kirby Chapman came in 1918 to serve the church. The present pastor, Rev. C. B. Thompson, who has just been called to serve for his sixth year, came to the church in 1920.

At the organization of the church there were but eight members of a four-time church with no church home. When Rev. Thompson came here there was a new building and about 160 members. Today there are some 240 members of this popular and strong denomination in the city of Bryan. The church is now on a full time basis and is active in every way that a church should be for the uplift of the city and community.

Two Wolves Are Caught Early Thursday Morn

A party from Bryan motored out to Wheelock-Benchley section about 4:00 o'clock this morning and joined a party of wolf hunters there. The hunt started on the Henry Seale farm at Benchley about 6:00 o'clock with about 15 dogs in the chase. One wolf was shot by George Dunn, Sr., who saw it slinking out toward the prairie when the dogs started another. This was said to have been a full-grown wolf. The dogs later caught and killed the young wolf they were running, the killing taking place near the Sam Rice place at Benchley after 2-hour chase. Those included in the wolf-hunting party were: Ed Wickes, Bryan; Jim Dunn, Wheelock; Ernest Closs, Tabor; Shird Holliday, Guss; George Dunn, Sr., Wheelock; Gus Schultz and Bob Martin of Bryan; and Frank Seale. The party returned to Bryan shortly after 8 o'clock this morning.

BRAZOS COUNTY Boys' and Girls' Club Department

Club Notes and Farm News by County Agent C. L. Beason

Sex Boys to Dallas Fair.

S. C. Evans, specialist in boys' club work, states that Brazos county will be entitled to 6 boys at the Educational Encampment at the State Fair this year, October 13-15. All boys expecting to compete for this trip, or scholarship, will send in their reports on or before October 8. Scholarships, or trips, will be given for the best record in corn club, cotton club, livestock, and poultry. If interest is shown, awards will be made to two others to take up the quota of six. The winners will be entitled to free entertainment while at the fair. Don't neglect to send in your reports properly filled out.

Generosity Is Requested.

There is an opportunity for some big-hearted citizen, or progressive organization to render a most helpful service in paying transportation for some club boy to the Dallas Fair. It will take about six dollars and a half to give a club boy the best trip of his life. Transportation has already been arranged for the girls who win the scholarships, but the boys have not been helped last year, and some good boy to help because of this generous act. Who will be kind on the list? Thank you kindly.

Waldon Orr to Try Again.

Waldon Orr, club member of the Edge Blue Ribbon 40, was in Bryan last Saturday and stated that he would again send an exhibit of corn to the Dallas Fair. For the past three years Waldon has won a prize on his corn at the State Fair, and he is unwilling to pass up the opportunity this fall, notwithstanding the drought.

On Improving the Soil.

Luther Holligan of Steep Hollow states that he plans to turn under for soil improvement the heavy crop of grass and weeds now coming up in his fields. Wherever you go you hear farmers talking about improving the soil. That is fine. It is the religion of a better agriculture. It should be preached from every community center and practiced on every farm.

Prizes for Better Farming.

Considerable agitation is being given the matter of demonstration farms for next year, the probability being that some of the leading business concerns of Bryan will embark in such an enterprise for the sake of proving the worth of intensive, or scientific, farming and for whatever profit they might be able to make out of it. A thousand dollars offered as prizes for the best five-acre field as proposed at a recent meeting of the Bryan Chamber of Commerce, would in all probability get greater results than one or two demonstration farms conducted by hired labor. Such a stimulus as $1,000 offered as prizes would likely enlist the enthusiastic support of several hundred farmers, the report of whose demonstrations on the several types of soil planted to the various crops would be most helpful to the entire farming population. It was this sort of plan that first started Smith county farmers, and is now moving all East Texas toward a more profitable farming. We are of the opinion that the farmer himself is best prepared to make these demonstrations in intensive and scientific farming. If any prize should be offered, it should be offered now when ample time can be given the matter of preparation.

On Bovine Tuberculosis.

"During the period of January 1 to June 30, 1925, eleven states either established their first county-wide area free of bovine tuberculosis, or increased the number of such areas previously established."—The Official Record. If we only realized the danger of bovine tuberculosis we would be more interested in having either our own cows tested, or see that the cows from which our milk supply comes, are tested.

Peas Grow Well in Brazos.

Some farmers will tell you that peas will not grow in Brazos county, but a visit to Pink Mims' farm in the Steep Hollow community shows the facts to be otherwise. Mr. Mims has already sold more than $40 worth of peas from a 4-acre plot, every third row only being planted to peas, and the crop is yet bearing. Checking up on a cotton crop following such a pea crop, Mr. Mims states that he found the production one-fourth bale more per acre than where no peas were planted, and in this case the pea crop was grazed under instead of being turned under as recommended for soil building.

Capper Praises Club Work.

In speaking editorially of the "biggest farm problem," Senator Arthur Capper of Capper's Farmer, pays a high tribute to boys' and girls' club work, saying, among other things, "I have found farm boys and girls eager to gain knowledge and help themselves. They want to learn about livestock and crops and are anxious to train themselves to be efficient. Club work, of course, is preliminary, but it establishes the foundation on which a thorough education may be built. The contacts made through club work with other boys and girls will be invaluable later. Attendance at district and state meetings yields experiences that are decidedly worth while. I urge

Go Into Poultry Right.

Northern poultry dealers are making early inquiry for poultry and poultry products, especially are they making inquiry about the turkey crop, admitting that the scarcity of the Thanksgiving bird will likely run the market higher than it was last year. Brazos county people are scarce of both turkeys and chickens this year. More calls for breeding stock have been received this year than ever before, but our people have not had "the goods". What we ought to do is to go into the poultry business right. Lay the foundation on true and tried principles, and start the work of producing accredited flocks. Not long ago, V. R. Glazener, poultry specialist, of the Extension Service, stated at the Kurten community meeting that he would be glad to help Brazos county as one of the two or three counties where it would be possible to undertake the work of starting accredited flocks, but so far our poultry raisers have shown little interest. Other counties will take advantage of this service and thereby put their poultry industry in the forefront. Shall we neglect?

MILICAN NEWS

(Special to the Eagle).

MILICAN, Sept. 22.—When the Millican Baptists held their first service in their new church, the last week in July, the ladies of the church were grieved that the same old home-made pews had to be used in their church. There was not a cent in the treasury for pews. Every one seemed to be a drought sufferer. Finally, the "drought sufferers" plan was suggested and put into operation. The first returns came in on August 3rd. On September 1-8 of a mile, returns had reached 2.5 of a mile. The ladies are so gratified over the hearty response given to their plan that they can hardly talk of anything else.

The Millican ladies have already thanked Navasota and the surrounding communities for their response. They want to thank Bryan and all communities of Brazos county just as heartily. Eight Bryan friends have contributed six (6) feet, or one dollar, each; one friend gave us 12 feet, one man and his wife gave us 30 feet. The Bryan Ladies Auxiliary, Circle No. 5, gave us 25 feet. A couple of friends from Steep Hollow, now teaching in West Texas, sent us 15 feet. Edge has helped us. Towns out of Brazos and Grimes county are helping us. Friends from two Central States, Iowa and Wisconsin, have helped us. For all of this the ladies of the Millican Baptist church are truly grateful.

Steele's Store Items

(Special to the Eagle)

STEELE'S STORE, Sept. 23.—The Steele's Store and Stone City Consolidated school opened here on Monday with an enrollment of about 80, which is only approximately half of the scholars that will enter the school before the year is over. It is expected that the school will prosper with the co-operation of teachers, parents and school board.

The Sunday school which is held every Sunday afternoon from 3 to 4 o'clock, had a good attendance and several visitors.

Since the rain last week the cotton is growing and the farmers, with the help of poison to kill the worms, are in hopes of a top crop yet.

The faculty at the school is as follows: Principal H. S. Van Burkleo, Misses Ruby Waller, Mary Church, Clair Woodard.

At a meeting held at the school house on Monday night, the attendance being small, a community club was organized to meet the first Friday night in each month. The members of the school board are: Dominec Angona, Ross Bonano, J. D. Caronia.

Each of them have one acre of peanuts for their project and each anticipates a production of 20 and 25 bushels. The fruit is already well developed, and ripe in some parts of the field. ## DR. JNO. A. HELD RESIGNS AS PASTOR OF THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH AT SUNDAY SERVICE

As the climax to a wonderful sermon Sunday morning at the First Baptist church, Dr. Jno. A. Held, presented, in writing, a rather lengthy letter of resignation after more than seven years of service at the head of this Bryan denomination and during which time he has done much toward building up the church. Dr. Held has not yet given out his decision as to where he will accept a pastorate next as he has other plans in addition to the call that has been extended to him from Mexico. Both the pastor and the great body of the church regret the severance of relations.

During the seven years of his pastorate there have been received more than 700 members. There has been organized three other churches in three years, yet the church itself is stronger than it was when Dr. Held came here. Dr. Held came to Bryan from the Stamford church on September 1, 1918. His resignation has been accepted and a committee appointed to draft suitable resolutions.

The following is the full text of Dr. Held's formal resignation: "I have been your pastor seven years and one month, having taken charge September 1, 1918. I am therefore in my eighth year as pastor. These have been the most eventful years of my life, both because of the experiences that have come to me locally and in my relation to the denomination. These experiences have taught me lessons I shall never be able to forget. I have learned that God and prayer and faith are the greatest realities in the realm of religion and human experience. I have learned that hardships and suffering are endurable when God is guiding. I have learned that if one counsels with God, truly and faithfully, that he must not pay too much attention to what men think. I have learned that in these nervous times if we find calm in God and quietness in faith, we need not be discouraged by every wind of criticism that blows. I have learned to weep before God in the midnight hour and to smile before men in the noon-day brightness; I have learned to lean upon God in the hours of trial and not be afraid of the wicked machinations of unscrupulous men. I have learned that patience and trust are mighty weapons to beat down sin and wrong.

Served at All Times.

"Out of these lessons have come to me conviction that shall ever live in my heart. I have come to the conclusion that my work with you shall be terminated. This conviction came to me more than a month ago and this morning I am doing what I intended at prayer meeting last Wednesday night, namely, I am herewith offering my resignation as pastor, to take effect November 1, next. In doing this I realize that I am severing ties which are dear to my heart and the process is more painful than words can tell. No man who loves God and men can serve a church like this for seven years and not have many friends who are very dear to him. I have been with many of you in the most holy hours of our lives. In sickness we have prayed together, in sorrow we have wept together. I have come to you when you called me at all times of the day and night. In the midnight and the early hours of the morning. I have come when you were heart-broken over sufferings and when your eyes were blinded with tears. I have never hesitated to serve you under any circumstances nor counted ought too much, but gladly gave myself and all I had in service to you. These experiences have made me feel very tenderly toward you and this separation is very painful. May the God of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, Bless you and prosper you and make you a great spiritual lighthouse in this community."

Rev. J. J. Kasisk is preparing a religious play for next Sunday night, to be given at the auditorium. A large crowd is expected to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. August Prinzel, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Plagens and family, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Conrad and two sons, Adolph and Freddie, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Conrad of Bryan on Sunday.

Kurten School Opens.

Between 7 and 8 o'clock the children and their parents began to gather at the auditorium, all enthusiastic and anxious to begin school duties. Messrs. C. L. Benson and Sam E. Eberstadt, with Miss Abbie Sevier, were eager to assist in the opening. Mr. Beason was the first speaker. He made a very interesting and instructive talk. He also complimented the pupils on their good conduct and pointed out to them the fact that Kurten's future reputation was theirs to make or mar.

Mr. Eberstadt followed with a heart-to-heart talk to the parents, boys and girls, urging them to take advantage of all their educational opportunities.

John Sabo made a short talk setting aside October the 3rd for clean-up day, a day to put the school buildings and grounds in perfect order.

Miss Abbie Sevier then made an appropriate talk, urging her club members to make the coming year count high.

Principal J. F. Hurff added some remarks, stressing happiness, advising the pupils to do their work the best they knew and it would bring them happiness.

Mrs. Hurff made a short talk in which she paid the Kurten school children a very high compliment as being well controlled and ready and willing to co-operate with their teachers in school work. Suitable songs were sung, with Mrs. Will Kelly at the piano.

It was then agreed that for a time that school should open at 8 a. m. and close at 3 p. m. Our first day of school continued until 4:30 p. m. with about 100 children present.

McDonald of Franklin, who is here for the September term of district court, returned just a week or so ago from the west, where with his family, his wife and two daughters, Helena Dana and Genita, he visited at the scenic points in Colorado, New Mexico, and the Panhandle. They spent three weeks out there, most of the time on Mr. McDonald's part being in angling for the finny denizens of the fresh water deep, with some degree of luck, he said, though no big ones. Mr. McDonald said he returned and finds that the trip did not cause him to lose any weight.

Middletons In A Family Reunion Hot Wells Sunday

Hot Wells, twenty-five miles west of Houston was chosen as the central meeting place for the reunion of the Middleton family Sunday. The father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Middleton, were the center of attraction, and much love and attention was showered upon them by their children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, making of it the happiest day of their lives. The day was spent in reminiscences of childhood days as they sat around the picnic dinner, where was spread fried chicken, cakes, pies, salads, tomatoes, pickles and all the other good things that go to make bountiful picnic spread. As the sun began to sink behind the western horizon, the happy group said good byes, pledging to make of this occasion an annual affair and wended the way homeward. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Middleton, parents; children: Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Seibel, Houston, Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Poole, Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Smith, Conroe, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. ## Terracing Is the Subject Meeting Last Saturday County Agent C. L. Beason reports quite an interesting meeting on last Saturday afternoon with farmers interested in terracing and anxious to work out some plan whereby the service may be made to reach the greatest number of farmers possible. Edge, Tabor, Kurten, Steep Hollow, Bryan, and Millican sent representatives, among them present being: C. B. McGregor of Millican, J. O. Orr of Edge, Walter Armstrong of Tabor, W. E. Moore, E. W. and Flavius Thompson and Luther Holligan of Steep Hollow, Jim Tobias of Bryan, and C. A. Schram of Kurten.

Demonstration Farms.

A general round table discussion of the subject of terracing, particularly the fall campaign, was engaged in, some calling attention to the fact that while many people would be ready for the work, the fact that teams were in poor shape to do heavy work would perhaps hinder to some extent the county-wide campaign. It was generally agreed that some public demonstration in terracing should be conducted in each community where all farmers interested might attend from day to day and learn for themselves more about the "mysteries" and use of the farm level in order that the work might continue while the County Agent was absent assisting farmers in some other community. It was also suggested that the field or farm to be used as a demonstration should be well located and selected by the people themselves. Walter Armstrong suggested that the respective communities might take up the matter of working out some plan to get more farm levels in each community. Attention was called to prizes that had been offered by the Bryan and Brazos County Chamber of Commerce for the best community terracing, as well as the best terracing on any individual farm, and it was agreed that this matter be again referred to the several communities, inasmuch as five communities would have to take part in the contest before community prizes would be available.

Are More Productive.

All present were loud in the praise of terracing that had been done on their farms, or in their communities, saying that each piece of work was an outstanding demonstration in soil conservation, or the checking of soil erosion. It was pointed out that some farmers still hold out as being opposed to terracing on account of short, or point, rows, but

Walter Armstrong answers that criticisms by saying that he had rather plow short rows that are productive than to plow long rows which are unproductive.

Pitts Bridge On Brazos Is Closed

Due to a large cave in of the bank or approach on the Brazos County side, which occurred on Sunday morning, the Pitts Bridge over the Brazos River on the state highway to Caldwell, has been closed until it can again be made safe for travel. About 14-feet of the east-side approach is gone. A Bohemian farmer living near the river, heard the crash early Sunday morning and hurried to the scene. Finding the damage done, he piled brush in the road so that no-one would attempt to cross the bridge and perhaps lives be lost, and then notified County Judge H. O. Ferguson.

The east span, which was put in only a few months ago to replace a washed out approach, is hanging to the bank by a thread of earth. If this too goes, as seems likely, the bank is cracked behind it, and the span will drop to the water but will likely not wash out as the channel is farther out around the two new piers. The District Supervisor and A. B. Carson motored out to the Bridge this morning to try to make repairs necessary for the opening of the bridge.

Tatum closed the meeting with prayer. Those present were: Mesdames W. G. Reynolds, Della Wooten, C. H. Holmes, Geo. Smith, Lum Bullock, Jim Mike, T. A. Cloud, Alice Cole, J. L. Edge, J. J. Tatum, Walter Holmes, S. G. Buchanan and Rev. and Mrs. C. B. Thompson.

Community Club Been Organized Steele's Store

A party from Bryan consisting of County Agent C. L. Beason, Secretary Sam E. Eberstadt, J. W. Payne and H. D. Cuykendall of the Bryan Eagle motored to Steele's Store on Monday night and took part in the organization of a community club there which will meet in future on the first Friday night of each month, unless prevented by rain or something else, when the meeting will be held on the third Saturday night. These dates were selected by the charter members who were present for the organization meeting.

It had been planned to hold the meeting on last Saturday night but arrangements had to be changed owing to the conflicting wedding of the same time. Salvaggio-Fezzino, the date was changed to Monday night instead. Only a small attendance was on hand and the room was very warm. J. M. Perrone called the house to order and turned the meeting over to County Agent Beason who talked at some length on the matter of community organization and the county-wide fair on next Saturday.

He then introduced Secretary S. E. Eberstadt who talked on community work and community development, touching lightly upon the fair and the necessity for doing anything undertaken in the best way possible and putting vim and pep into it.

H. D. Cuykendall of the Eagle gave a reading and was followed by J. W. Payne, who also gave a reading on the theme of the modern flapper and wondering what her influence would be on the present and the future generation. Johnny Perrone told of his trip last year to the Dallas Fair and some of his experiences there, as an inducement to other boys to carry on their club work and win some of the prizes offered for a better agriculture.

Aid Is Promised.

Principal H. S. Van Burkleo talked at some length and asked the co-operation of all for the advancement of the school and pledged the support of himself and the school board to anything that might tend to make progress for the community and to help all they could in the furtherance of the community club organization.

Mr. Perrone closed the meeting by saying that the gathering had been such an inspiration to him that he felt like he had raised a bale more cotton though he knew he would not get it.
